When I feel the breeze of summer, I always remember a lot of memories of summer vacation. I really enjoyed the summer vacations when I was an elementary school student. But there is one summer vacation that I can't forget.

At that time, I always had a good time with my best friend, Koji. The river which ran through our town was very beautiful and a lot of fish were swimming in it. Koji could catch a lot of fish. I went to the river with Koji almost every day.

One day we were catching fish in the river. I was thinking about my homework, so I couldn't enjoy catching fish. When we sat on the riverside, I said, "Koji, did you finish your homework? I know you can write a good essay. Last year, our teacher said that your essay was the best in our school. So, Koji, could you help me with my essay? I tried it yesterday, but..." Koji said suddenly, "Sorry, I can't help you." I was surprised and said, "Koji, we are friends, right?" Koji looked at me and said, "We are friends, so I can't help you." I was angry and said, "Why? We are not friends!" Koji stood up without saying a word. Before he left, he looked at me. I saw a deep sorrow in his eyes. Since then, I was always thinking about Koji. All the things around me looked dark and cold, even the sun, the flowers and the stars.

A few weeks later, Koji called me suddenly, "Can you come to the river? I want to catch fish with you." Silently, we began to catch fish. A few hours later, Koji said, "You haven't got anything. Shall I give you my fish?" I was a little angry and said, "No, I don't want your fish." Koji said, "Why?" I said, "I want to bring fish home, but I really want to get fish without your help." Koji was watching the river and began to talk.

"Sorry. Well..., do you remember the homework our teacher gave us last summer?" "Yes. We had to write an essay," I said. "Right. We had to do it, so I asked my grandfather how to write a good essay. But... I was wrong," Koji said. I was surprised and said, "Why?" "He taught me a lot of things. But when I began to write, he helped me a lot. Finally my essay changed into a great one. I was not happy at all, so at that time I said to you: I can't help you," Koji said. The river was running silently in front of us. 📄

"Koji, please show me how to catch a lot of fish like you," I said. Koji smiled and said, "Sure, I will. But I will never help you." Then fish were swimming in the sunny river, and the birds were singing in the beautiful blue sky.
